

Hi, it's me
Letizia

Something About Me:

I am 21 years old, I am a very sweet, sunny and carefree girl. i love adventure and discovering new things.

WHERE Do I Come From?

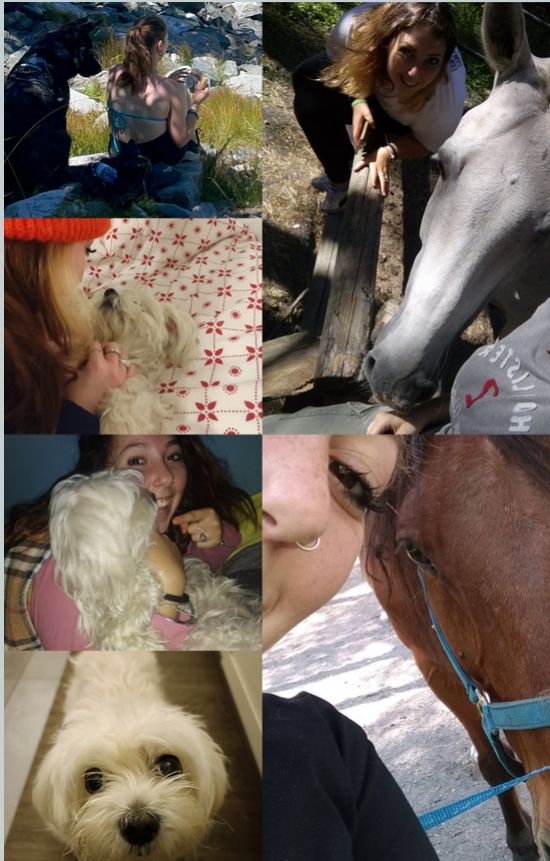

I come from Turin, a city located in Northern Italy. It is a very large city, in fact 858 971 people live there.

The city being very large, was divided into 34 districts.

I live with my family in the Mirafiori Sud district.

Things i like

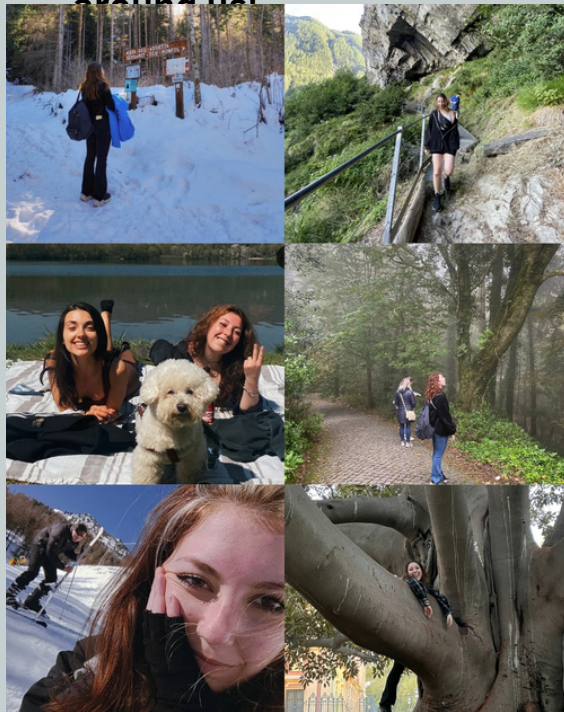

Animals

I like all animals, my dream has always been to live in a large farmhouse

Nature

I love both trekking in the woods, and snorkelling in the seas, or gardening. It's so much fun discovering the world around us!

Food

I like both eating and cooking, but above all I always like to create new combinations, in the kitchen there are no rules, only creativity.

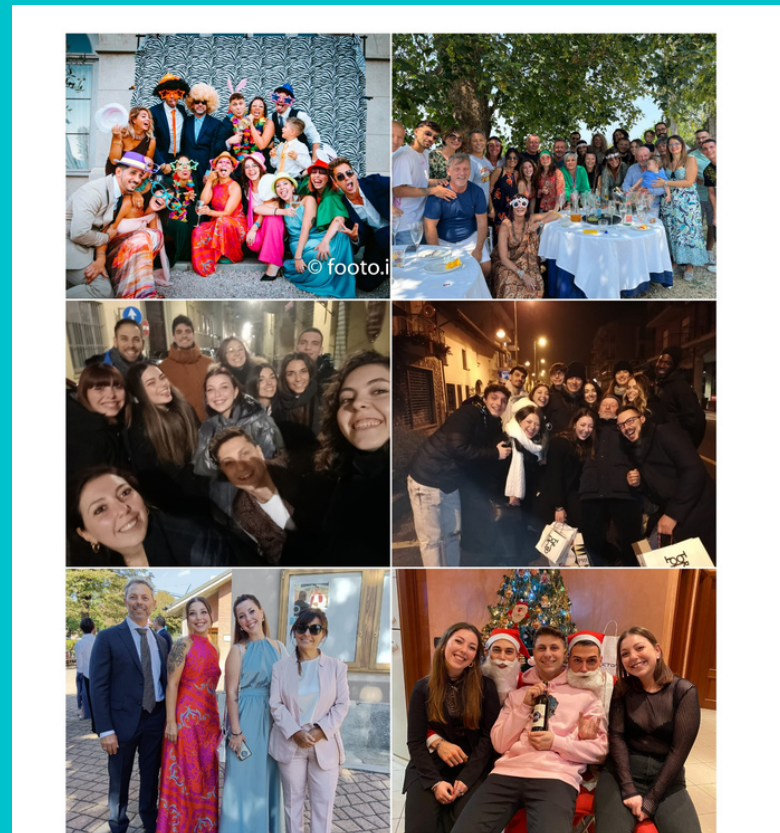

My Family

I have a very large family, when we all get together we reach about 40 people. We are very boisterous and like to spend time together, I love them.

My Friends

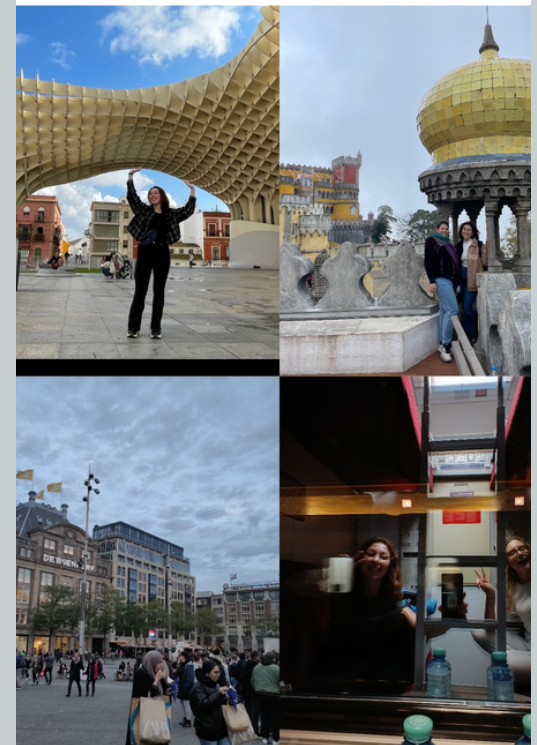

I have a very open and sunny character, thanks to which I have met many people, including my friends. Thanks to their support and love, I am here with you today, they supported me right away.

My Hobbies:

Discover the world

I really like travelling, I love getting to know new cultures and visiting new cities. For now I've only traveled in Europe, I'd like to be able to discover the whole world, it will be difficult but I'll try.

Draw and Paint

I like being able to give vent to my creativity by painting or drawing. I usually go to nature to paint because it relaxes me much more

Photography

I have always found photography fascinating, I am a person very attached to memories and being able to somehow capture them forever, I think it is a beautiful thing
